

unknown ray

you see that her smile's gone you see that her life's run away you see that not even the sun is able to warm her hand

you see her crawling
you see her falling down you see that not even your calling she's able to understand

hey, don't you see me
hey, don't you hear me
...i feel you're near

in her language
you grasp the message
that on her voyage
can't escort her on her way

she's behind the shadow where the dreams blow on so let her go
into this unknown ray
